DEDICATION

We, the members of the Class of 1939, dedicate this Yearbook to Dr. Milton H. Steinhauer, as a token of appreciation for his helpfulness and friendliness to us during the years he acted as Assistant Principal of our school.

We reluctantly relinquished Dr. Steinhauer to fortunate Millersville State Teachers College at the eve of our Junior Year. We are more than assured of all his future successes.

S T R A T I O N

To the Class 1939, the Superintendent's office extends greetings, congratulations and best wishes. You leave the shelter of Darby High School where you have been kept busy physically and mentally with regular work and recreation done at stated times, and where you have learned to honestly disagree with your teachers and classmates without any suspicion that those with whom you disagree lack loyalty to your school or your country. Throughout your school life, you have lived and worked harmoniously and without prejudice with those of other races, nationalities and creeds. These are the ideals and the practices that have made the United States a great nation.

If you do not go to work or to school at once upon leaving us, you should so use your spare time that you will be of service to others and do not lose your regular habits of work and play. Do not blame your unemployment on other races or nationalities, but remember that except for aggressive individuals, they are having as much difficulty as you.

In your discussion of solutions for unemployment and other problems, weigh all proposals intelligently without emotion or suspicion. Remember always that Americanism consists of solving common problems through intelligent compromise of different opinions freely expressed.

WALTER R. DOUTHETT,
Superintendent of Schools

"Somebody said it couldn't be done,
But he with a chuckle replied
That 'maybe it couldn't,' but he would be one
Who wouldn't say so till he'd tried.
So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin
On his face. If he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it."

EDGAR A. GUEST.

J. WALLACE SANER,

CLASS ADVISERS

MRS. OLIVE DIMMICK

We, the Class of '39, wish to express our heartfelt thanks to you, Mrs. Dimmick, for all the fine work you have done for us during our high school days.

Your cheerful helpfulness has acted as a spur when the going was hard, and has helped in bringing us through with flying colors.

It is the sincere hope of the "Thirty-Niners" that your good humor and guidance will prove a real inspiration to some future class of Darby High School.

Although years may pass, each of us will have locked in his heart a lovely memory—of your friendship.

MR. HERMAN W. SOLAR

To Mr. Solar, the man who has been a companion and "good-fellow" to us all, we, the "Thirty-Niners", not as students of Darby High School, but as his close friends, wish to express our thanks for all his hard work in our behalf.

We will always remember that it was only through his interest and encouragement that our trials, rough spots, and endeavors met with the success which seemed inevitable in all our undertakings.

Our sincere good wishes will go with him always.

Lights! The hush of an enthusiastic audience stirred to a high pitch of expectation. Curtain!

We found ourselves in the living room of the carefree Gilders of Long Island, New York. Into this atmosphere, a sinister figure in the character of Hugh Rafferty entered as a bombshell, generating mystery, drama, and comedy.

All the members of the cast gave an excellent interpretation which will long be remembered.

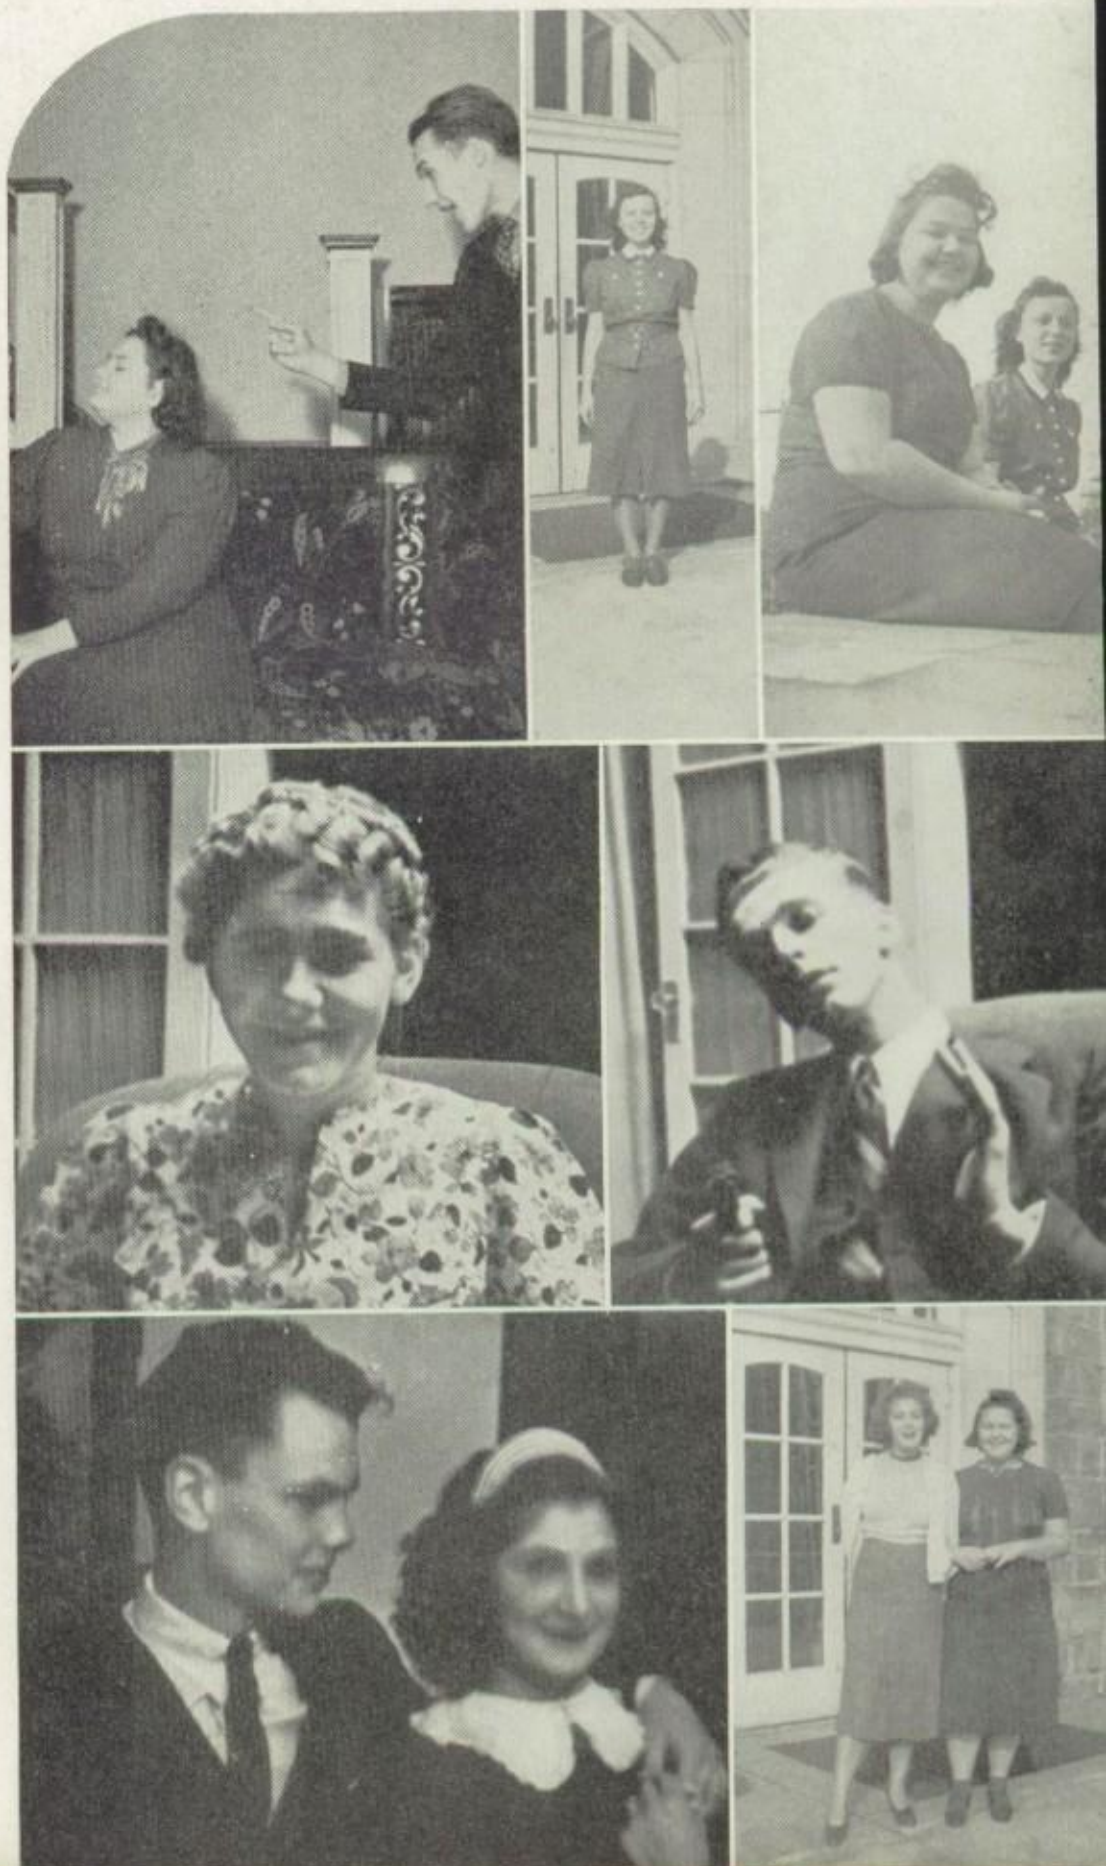

To you, Mr. Martin C. Stauffer, we give thanks for the splendid direction which made our Senior Play a real success.

"GUESS AGAIN"

Our Junior play was considered by many of our friends as one of the best comedies ever put on by the students of Darby High School.

The story concerned itself with a harsh landlord who had a mortgage on the hotel of Mr. Grimes. The notoriety of an Englishman, Lord Wiggleton, saved the day.

The excellent direction of Miss Mary Smedley and Mrs. Olive Dimmick was responsible for much of the play's success.

This little comedy given in our Sophomore Year was presented at the last meeting of the Home and School Association. As its title implies, it depicted an old fashioned class-room. Many amusing situations were the result of an old fashioned bespectacled school marm's efforts to subdue her obstreperous pupils.

LETTER TO THE FACULTY

We, the Class of 1939, wish to express to you our sincere regrets for the numerous headaches and sleepless nights that we have caused you during our stay in Darby High School. May you forget our noise in the halls, our restlessness in the classrooms, as well as our many blunders. Think of us as those poor souls who needed and appreciated the advice, the help, and the guidance which you were always willing to provide.

Seriously, we regret that our high school days with you are over.

We shall always cherish the memory of you, and hope you will remember us as a class that always tried to maintain the fine traditions of Darby High School.

ATHLETICS

Top row: Duffy, Hawk, Gilmour, Dowd, Taylor, McKeag, Shillady, Moxley, Michael.

Hats off to our champion football squad, the first undefeated eleven since 1930, and the only undefeated and untied team in the football history of our school. This team won the distinction of being chosen the 1938 football champions of suburban Philadelphia. Eight of our squad were given additional honors. Co-captain James Hardy was awarded the Maxwell Trophy, and was named as quarterback on the "All-Scholastic" and "All-Suburban" first teams. Philip Silver was named on the "All-Suburban" second team as guard. Co-captain William Winterle and Howard Sage were named on the "All-Suburban" third team as fullback and end respectively. Robert Farmer, Frank Colucci, Horace Cox and Vincent Sannuti were given honorable mention on the "All-Suburban" list.

The outstanding game of the year was the 21-14 victory over Ridley Park, who, until meeting us, had not been defeated in twenty-four successive games.

Amid cheers and shouting, our 1938 hockey season opened. The leadership of our co-captains, Helen Bounds and Alice Hawk, together with the cheerfulness and sportsmanship of the group, resulted in a successful season. To the team of '38 and its coach, Miss Carlson, under whose careful direction any team would come through with high spirits, we say, "You were grand. Let no one tell you different."

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Coach Stover's proteges completed their season in a triple tie for second place in Section II of the Suburban Conference. They covered themselves with glory by winning six of their last eight games.

The team wound up the season by reaching the quarter-finals in the annual Kiwanis Tournament. Nice work, fellows!

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The basketball squad, under the leadership of its captain, Edith Shillady, came through with a record worthy of great praise. Coach Carlson did much to promote high spirits and good sportsmanship.

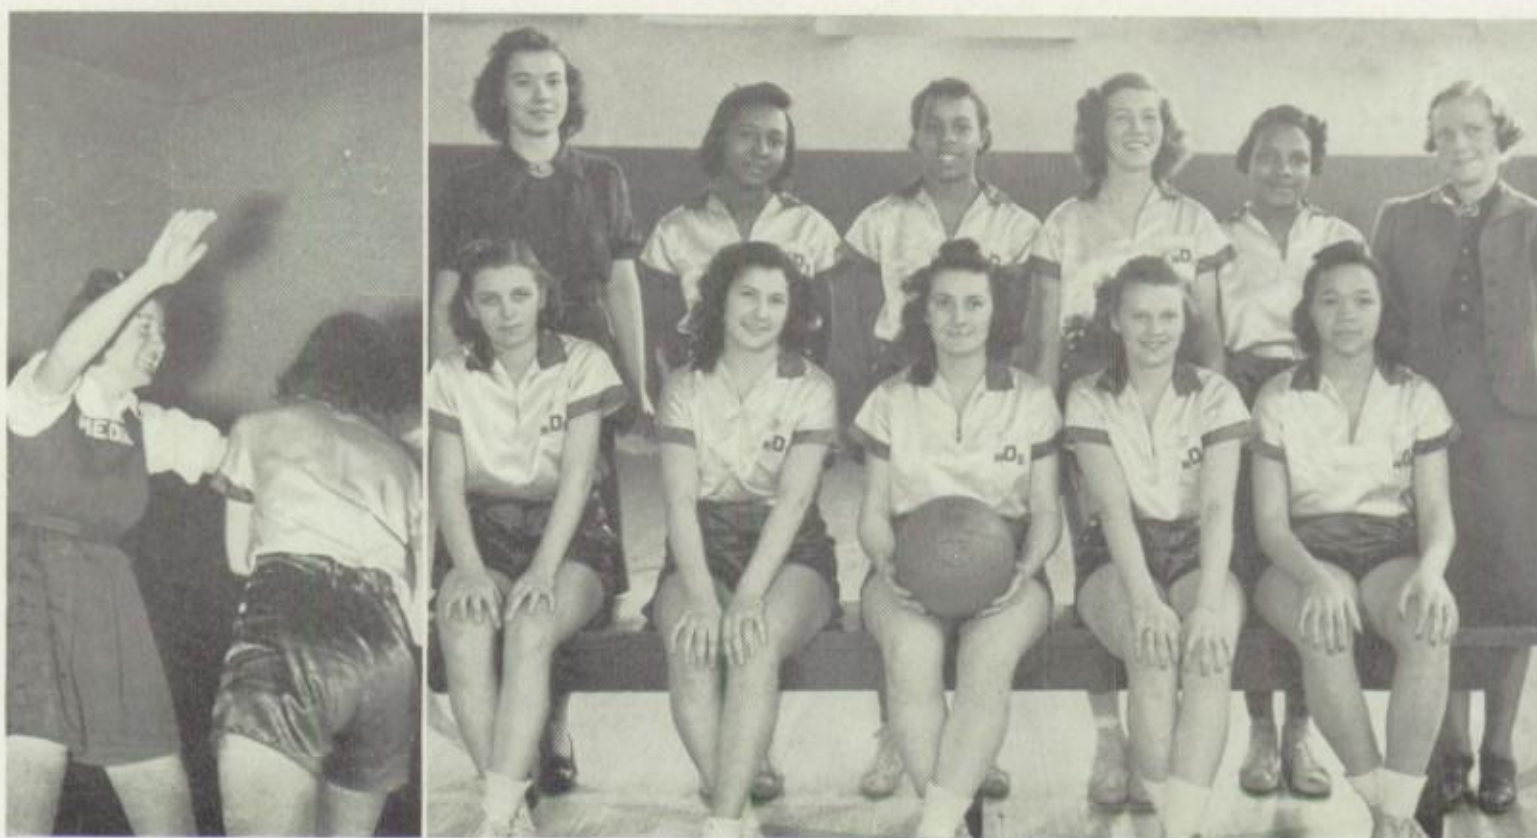

The memory of our satin clad team as it fought for the glory of its colors will linger long.

BASEBALL

The Yearbook went to press before the baseball season opened. At that time, we could only predict inevitable success for the squad. This prediction was based on the large number of boys that reported to our new coach, Mr. Solar, for the first practice.

The boys with previous experience who served as a nucleus for a good team were Roy Robison, Len Cash, Ray Cash, James Hardy, William Dempsey, Raymond Reath, Wilbur Hawk, Edward Natale, Thomas Griffin, Herbert Miller, Horace Cox, William Wilson, Harold Reese, and Paul Reese.

Third Row: Manager Barton, Bowers, Miller, Griffin, Adukoski, Reath, Wilson, Coach Solar.
Second Row: L. Cash, Hawk, Cox, Hardy, Robison, R. Cash.
First Row: Haley, Schmitt, Rosenfeld, Natale.

Back Row: Curtis, Bishop, Stevens, Orr, Grundy.
 Third Row: Manager Holt, Douglas, Gustin, Mills, Moxley, Brown, Chavous, Assistant-Coach Schneider, Olsen, Coach Stauffer.
 Second Row: Leventhal, Eckert, Winterle, Silver, Sannuti, Davis, Simpson.
 First Row: Wharton, Burke, Murray, Wiley, Slaffey.

At the first of April, Coach Stauffer's squad had all the earmarks of being a "winner". The fact that a number of last season's "point-getters" were retained, gave pep to the group at the very beginning of the season. With old-timers such as Warren Moxley, William Eckert, Vincent Sannuti, Philip Silver, Robert Davis, Jacob Slaffey, Earl Mills and William Winterle there was no fear for Darby's track honors.

The team was fortunate this year in receiving the services of Mr. George Schneider who was appointed as assistant coach.

CHEER LEADERS

Pep! Vim! Vigor! How well those words describe our cheerleaders! Their increasing zeal brought real cheers from the spectators and added enthusiasm and zest to the game. With the girls in their white outfits in front of the enthusiastic throng, our teams had support in victory or defeat.

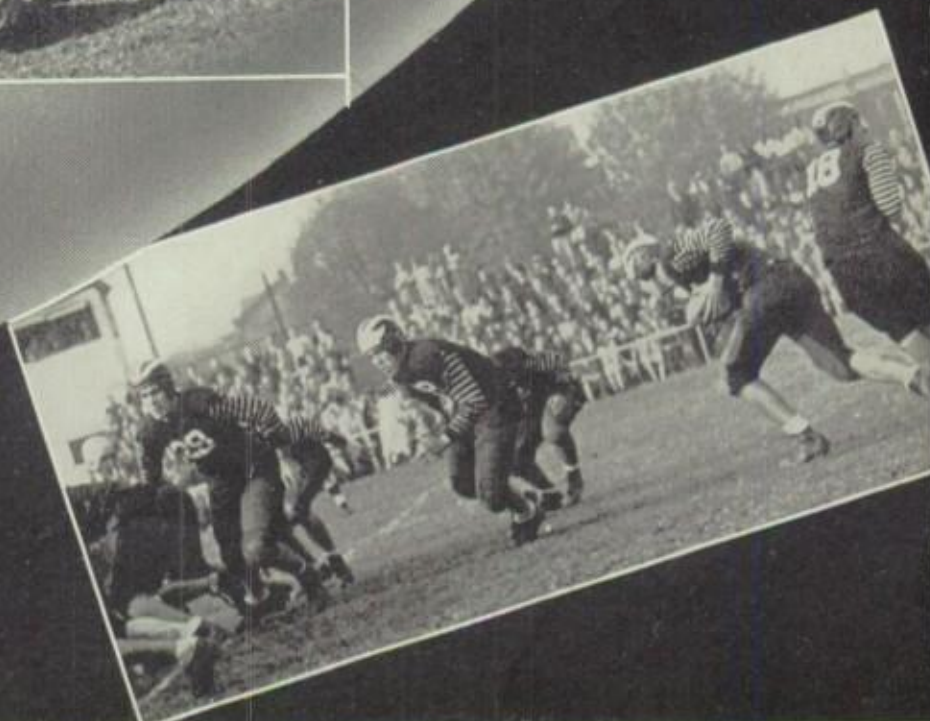

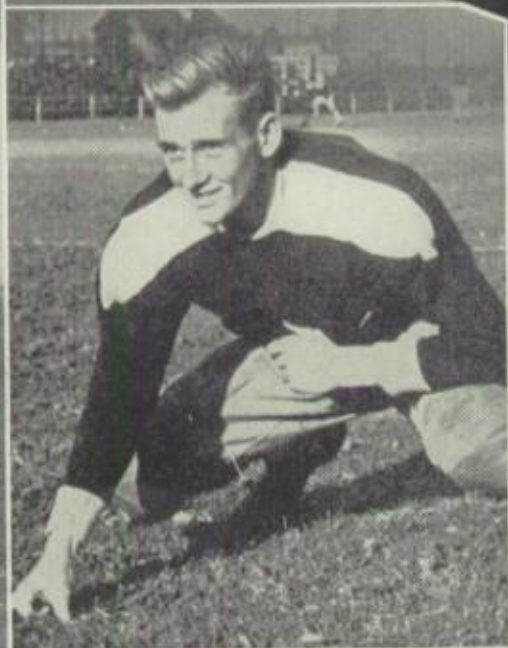

We are proud of our captain, Margaret Shanebrook, and her co-workers who did an excellent job.

ACTIVITIES

The Band, under the direction of Mr. L. Barry Tedesco, consisting of seventy-three members was one of the largest in the State of Pennsylvania.

We shall ever be grateful to the Home & School Association for its interest and financial assistance that permitted our band to rank among the best.

Its members were Asbury, Batchelor, Baxter, Boice, Bradshaw, Bretherick, Brown, Bruce, Buckley, H. Burke, J. Burke, R. Burke, Burns, Bycer, Cassassa, Castagna, Charbonnier, Clifton, Cloud, Colucci, Covington, Cowle, F. Cox, M. Cox, Duffield, Dunstan, Eastwood, Eissing, Etter, Fletcher, Franklin, N. Frese, W. Frese, Gamble, Gilligan, Greer, Haas, Hacket, Hagale, Hampton, Hawk, Height, Henderson, Hild, Hooven, Horn, Jackle, Kaufmann, Keidel, Lashinger, Leventhal, Logan, Lutton, Lytle, Markowitz, Martin, Marvil, Massy, Mattola, McCoy, McGlynn, Meara, Merker, Rosenfeld, Rothberg, Simmons, Simpson, Stallford, Stephey, Stewart, Thomas, Topper, and Worthington. Drum majors: Burns, Frost, Hampilos, Healy and Kent.

ORCHESTRA

To the members of the Orchestra and to their conductor, Mr. Gerald C. Harter, we express appreciation for many splendid performances in our school auditorium.

Its members were M. Baily, F. Baxter, J. Boice, E. Bradshaw, G. Brown, K. Brown, B. Bycer, M. Cain, A. Colangelo, F. Cox, M. Cox, F. Dawson, M. Dawson, R. Etter, A. Fiorita, J. Fletcher, D. Frost, G. Gates, M. Gates, A. Grow, J. Haas, R. Hagale, G. Horn, C. Hunt, A. Hyde, H. Jackle, L. Lashinger, N. Leventhal, E. Marshall, L. Martin, W. Massy, F. Meara, P. Mohrback, I. Rosenfeld, E. Thomas, J. Thompson, V. Timmia, B. Waszilycsak, R. Watts, E. White, W. Worthington, B. Zalmanovich, M. Zalmanovich.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The immediate executive control of student participation in the government of Darby High School was placed in the hands of a small body, the Student Council. Nevertheless, through the homeroom Senators, it was the student body itself who expressed its wishes to the executives of the school. The Council was directly responsible for the bazaar dance, and the much needed recording machine.

Mention of the efficient supervision of Mr. William J. Eisenberg is in order.

Back Row: H. Sharpler, R. Shillady, J. Faul, J. Hardy, L. Cash, J. Burke, D. Murray. Front Row: M. Healy, M. Shanebrook, P. Bretherick, A. Bishop, L. Honrine, A. Hartnett, M. Ryan.

MONITORS

A bell rang. Class was over. Hundreds of pupils filled our corridors en route to another class. Why was there no jam that took hours to straighten out? You all know the answer.

The chief monitor, James Hardy and his worthy staff, deserved to be congratulated on their fine work. Mr. Eisenberg gave valuable advice to this group of competent representatives.

Standing: J. Salotti. Seated: P. Crosby, D. Truitt, R. Mink, J. Hardy, R. Farmer, B. Haldeman, L. Honrine.

CHORAL SOCIETY

The Choral Society, under the very capable leadership of Mr. William H. Stine, made our old and new halls swell with the strains of Christmas Carols and with many other beautiful musical selections throughout the year. A magnificent entertainment was rendered by this group at the 1939 Spring Musicale. Undoubtedly, the added depth of tone was the result of the large number of male voices that had joined the club in September. Good work, Choristers!

R. Brown, J. Olson, J. Hill, B. Waszilycsak, J. Boulden, D. Bowe, A. Bell, B. Rhoden, E. Burgin, G. Smalley, G. Wheatley, M. Bailey, J. Logan, L. Casper, M. Campbell, E. Burdette, J. Boyer, M. Martin, H. Peoples, L. McLaughlin, H. Batchelor, D. Beck, V. Barbine, A. Impriano, F. Harmon, A. Slaffey. Instructor: William H. Stine.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Under the splendid direction of Miss Leslie Marsh, our Dramatic Club produced some outstanding performances. Over the footlights we saw many of our schoolmates become familiar personalities of very life-like settings in plays such as "Trying Them Out" by Lillian Stoll, "How a Woman Keeps a Secret" by Frank Dumont, and "Elmer" by Beatrice H. McNeill.

Thank you, Thespians, for really fine entertainment.

CRIER STAFF

Sans Seniors, the Crier Staff "carried on" in a most commendable manner. Under the skillful guidance of Miss C. Jeanne Whittaker and Mr. Leon Schrage, the Juniors and Sophomores did a grand job of bringing to us biweekly, the current news of our student body and school.

Everyone has enjoyed the "Crier."

The personnel of the Staff consisted of Phyllis Bretherick, Anita Buck, Joseph Burke, Richard Christie, Violet DeGenova, Luella Gillin, Mary Hampilos, Ann Hartnett, Marie Healy, Lillian Honrine, May Keough, Josephine McGlynn, Don Murray, Harold Plummer, Edith Principato, Emma Principato, Doris Reinert, Miriam Rinehart, Eleanor Shillady, Laura Smith, Margaret Speers, Dorothea Tyler, Jane Waldie, William Worthington, Alice Wright, and Harriet Zisovitz. Instructors: C. Jeanne Whittaker and Leon Schrage.

SECRETARIAL STAFF

Practical and valuable service was rendered by the Secretarial Staff to many teachers throughout our junior and senior high schools. Countless pieces of typewritten and dittoed material have been the results of the faithful and conscientious efforts of the members of this group. Inestimable assistance to the teachers, and secretarial experience to the students have ensued.

Under the excellent supervision of Miss Ruth McCrone, this group did work of which we could all be proud.

The Staff included Linda Albright, Nancy Bianchi, Margaret Clark, Phyllis Crosby, Mary Cuminti, Violet DeGenova, Hazel Dessin, Dorothy Donnelly, Eleanor Dougherty, Alma Fleming, Florence Gaul, Frances Haas, Alice Hawk, Esther Hawk, Ethel Jackel, Helen Kelly, May Keough, Matilda Ladd, Betty Marshall, Madeleine Martin, Ethel McLarnon, Alice Perna, Pearl Redmond, Miriam Rinehart, Margaret Shanebrook, Harry Sharpler, Edith Sims, Frances Spuglio, Edith Stevenson, Mabel VonZech, Bertha Waszilycsak, Betty Wiggins. Instructor: Ruth McCrone.

"FLY AWAY HOME"

Thunder and lightning! Puppy dog and kitten! Food! Children! Taxi driver! A scolding papa! Direction by Mr. Edward B. Deery!

It was great fun seeing the dignified members of our faculty passing before our eyes in the personalities of kiddies, professor, practical business men, and weary housekeeper. How the children saved their parents from the divorce court was—but, why go on? Everyone saw that finished production; that superb vehicle, "Fly Away Home."

OPPORTUNITIES

Real opportunities await high school graduates who make the necessary technical preparation.

CIVIL SERVICE

Hundreds of high school graduates afterward trained in Strayer's Business School have received appointments to Government positions at salaries from $1260 to $1620 a year.

THE STENOTYPE

Many high school graduates who have learned Stenotypy at Strayer's now have good business positions or Government positions, and some are reporters at $2600 to $5000 a year.

EMPLOYMENT

The skill developed by Strayer graduates is always in demand. Graduates of Strayer's Business School find profitable employment.

It's the little things that mark the difference between a "distinctive annual" and "just another yearbook." The Campus system of yearbook counsel and production is based on the little things that count—

PERSONAL ATTENTION

QUALITY

BUDGET

- Personalized attention of thoroughly trained servicemen, former editors of outstanding college annuals, who know the problems of yearbook production—and the answers!
- Uniformity of quality and materials regardless of the size of book.
- A wide range of type faces, and the advice of expert typographers regarding taste, suitability and harmony of types.
- An eye toward proper distribution of the budget. The Campus plan of handling books completely from layout to delivery allows a maximum of value at minimum cost.

Design for Yearbooks

Not merely for the sake of keeping abreast with modern design but, above all, to produce an annual of which you will be proud.
